

the Hudson-Pulton celebration. If the explorer can be persuaded to hasten his return to New York before the end of September, with this in view, the board of directors of the Explorers' Club held a meeting to-night and sent a telegram to Captain Cook, urging Dr. Cook to be the guest of honor at the club's Hudson-Pulton dinner on September 30. If favorable reply is received, it will be taken at once to designate September 30 "Cook's day" at the Hudson-Pulton celebration, and a substantial fund will be raised to make his welcome home an event corresponding to the unparalleled character of his achievement.

The cablegram sent to-night, signed by Henry C. Walsh, secretary of the Explorers' Club, is as follows: "Heartiest congratulations on your splendid achievement by board of directors of Explorers' Club. We urge you to be guest of honor at Explorers' Club dinner September 30."

"WALSH." If the plans of the Explorers' Club meet with Dr. Cook's approval, the date tentatively selected to-night is appointed for the official welcome, an international character will be lent to the celebration by the presence in New York at that time of several of the most prominent explorers of other countries.

Peary's Friends Holding Out. Those present at to-night meeting in the club rooms were almost unanimous in their belief that Dr. Cook would be able to produce ample proof to convince all doubters. There are those, however, in the membership of the club, it was said, who frankly question Dr. Cook's account of his achievement, and who have declared to the directors that the most unassailable scientific proof should be demanded before the club officially recognizes Dr. Cook as the discoverer of the pole. One of the directors of the club, who declined to be at to-night's meeting because of the said, he was not in sympathy with the project, was quoted as declaring that the society should demand proof. This director is a close personal friend of Lieutenant Peary, and it was stated to-night that many of Peary's friends in the club are supporting his point of view.

Friends Denounce Chicago Skeptics Who Doubt Cook's Word. NEW HAVEN, CONN., September 3.—The report that Chicago professors do not believe that Dr. Frederick A. Cook has discovered the North Pole calls forth criticism from Director Chittenden of the Sheffield Scientific School, whose guest Dr. Cook has often been, and from Professor Brewer, who accompanied Dr. Cook on one of his Arctic trips.

Professor Chittenden says: "I think the stand taken by these professors is manifestly unfair, and is certainly unwarranted. Scientifically, with their denials and say he is falsifying before they have even heard his story. I think they should wait at least until his story is heard."

Professor Brewer says: "I shall believe Dr. Cook until it is proved that he did not reach the pole. He is an honest man, and would not lie about the matter."

ASTOUNDING FEAT, HE SAYS Noted Italian Explorer Has Faith in Success of American. ROMÉ, September 3.—A correspondent of the Tribuna interviewed Captain Umberto Cagni, president of the International Polar Commission, and him- self an explorer of note, on his arrival to-day at Gaeta, aboard the battleship Napoli. Captain Cagni said that what Dr. Cook had done was a marvelous piece of enterprise worthy of his daring. He believed Dr. Cook would be capable of reaching the pole, and that he had reached the pole, and declared that a man who has the courage to face the danger alone cannot be a man of bad faith.

"The Arctic explorer," said Captain Cagni, "either is a genuine explorer, or a swindler. Dr. Cook is not a swindler. His undertaking is astounding."

WANTS COOK TO LECTURE New York Theatrical Manager Offers Him a $250,000 Engagement. NEW YORK, September 3.—A theatrical manager, who has been making a campaign to-night to Dr. Cook, offering him $250,000 for 250 lectures on his experiences in the Far North.

KEGLEY REFUSES CHANGE OF VENUE [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] TAZEWELL, VA., September 3.—Judge Fulton Kegley, sitting in the Circuit Court here, to-day refused to grant a change of venue in the famous damage suits against the Pocahontas Collieries Company, growing out of an explosion which occurred in the company's mines at Pocahontas several years ago.

There are about thirty-five cases, each for $10,000, two of which have been tried and resulted in a verdict for the defendant.

Upon the assumption that an impartial trial could not be had in this county on account of coal interests, counsel for the complainants sought to have their cases removed.

Judge Kegley refused to grant the permanent injunction asked for by Dr. Eggle, of Bland county, to prevent the New River, Holston and Western Railroad from passing through his farm in Bland county. A temporary injunction was granted ten days ago. The road will be the first to enter the county of Bland, and will open up a vast amount of mineral territory.

UHLAN, IN SLOW TIME, DEFEATS HAMBURG BELLE

Record Hung Up at Readville by Lou Dillon Still Untouched. Third Meeting to Decide.

READVILLE, MASS., September 3.—Over a track full two seconds slower than when the great Lou Dillon started the advance, a mile in two minutes, the trotting gelding Uhlau defeated Hamburg Belle in straight heats at Readville to-day in the second meeting of the pair to decide the trotting championship of the world. As Uhlau is a locally owned and bred colt, the crowd of 10,000 cheering vociferously at the conclusion of each of the heats, and also when the victor returned to the wire for Driver Robert Proctor to weigh in.

Hamburg Belle was favorite before the start at odds of 5 to 2. At the end of the race, she earned the world's record of 2:01.4 for trotters in a race.

Andrew's Mistake. On the second race Walker sent them away to a fine start. Immediately Andrews, driving Hamburg Belle, opened a gap of a length, and Uhlau quickly went into the lead, winning easily by two lengths. The fractional parts of the mile were: 31.3-4, 1:02.3-4, 1:33.1-4 and 2:04.3-4.

In the second heat Uhlau was in about the same position, but even terms, and had a collar to even the race. He held his position, and Proctor, too, made his drive in the lower turn at exactly the same place as before.

Entering the stretch, Andrews began to tease his mare for increased speed. However, Uhlau was crawling, and even terms, and had a collar to even the race. He held his position, and Proctor, too, made his drive in the lower turn at exactly the same place as before.

Third Meeting Yesterday. Cheering began all along the quarter stretch, for the conquering horse then came away in front and was good length ahead at the wire. The fractional parts were: 31, 1:01.1-4, 1:32 and 2:03.1-2.

In deciding the relative merits of the two fastest racing trotters of the world has ever seen the score stands out each, with a third meeting necessary to establish the championship. In the Blue Hill handicap for trotters Prince Lavalard, 2:11.3-4, tripped and broke his hind leg above the ankle. A policeman ended his suffering with a bullet. The horse was eighteen years old, but had campaigned all over the country. He was owned by S. Birch, of Orange, Mass.

REVENUE TAXES SHOW BIG GAINS

Second Virginia District Turned in Nearly Four Million Dollars.

KING NICOTINE LEADING Cigars and Cigarettes Exceed Others, Tobacco Coming Next in List.

With a grand total of $4,811,320.14 for the last fiscal year, receipts at the office of Collector Major K. Lowery, second Virginia revenue collection district of Virginia, show an enormous increase over 1929, and in the words of one well-versed in such things, "All previous records were broken, and the receipts to the government through Eastern Virginia have shown a proportionate increase which will compare favorably with any section of the United States."

Not only in the amount of tax raised on spirits, but on tobacco as well, the collections locally have increased largely. In 1929-1930, when the total was $3,595,237.82, the figures showed a slight decrease as compared with 1928-1929, this being due to financial depression. The 1928-1929 collections have so far surpassed both previous years.

In the Western Virginia district, where the headquarters are located at Abingdon, the receipts last year were $323,255.41, which show a decided decrease over the year previous. The exact cause of this falling off is not explained, although the collections are said to have been affected to a certain extent by the fact that many localities in the Western district have voted to prohibit the sale of whiskey, and as a result many manufacturers have been closed.

How Tax Is Raised. The second collection district, of which Richmond is the center, embraces the counties of Amelia, Appomattox, Brunswick, Buchanan, Chesterfield, Cumberland, Dinwiddie, Elizabeth City, Essex, Fluvanna, Gloucester, Goochland, Greensville, Hanover, Henrico, Isle of Wight, James City, King and Queen, King George, King William, Lancaster, Louisa, Lunenburg, Mathews, Middlesex, Nansemond, New Kent, Norfolk, Northumberland, Nottingham, Powhatan, Prince Edward, Prince George, Princess Anne, Richmond, Stafford, Southampton, Spotsylvania, Surry, Sussex, Warwick, Westmoreland and York.

The tax collections on beer were $61,250; on spirits, $298,707.42; on cigars and cigarettes, $2,067,152.20; on tobacco, $1,332,476.48; on special taxes, including tax on liquors and oleomargarine, $35,578.63. In penalties and on compromised cases, $15,155.77, were collected. The schedule of receipts shows September, 1929, to have been the most active month of the fiscal year. This schedule of receipts from the seventy districts in the country, shows that Virginia stood twenty-second.

Jefferson Shields, the old negro coach for Stonewall Jackson until his death, was in attendance.
